

I don't want to talk about my drinking

Well I don't have many other pleasures

I don't have time to discuss this right now

In that case, I will have to cut down

I don't think I drink
too much

I think I could make some changes

No I'm not interested

What could I do?

I didn't know it was risky

I'd miss it a lot if I cut down

I've tried before but it was very difficult

I have been trying
but it's really tricky

I enjoy drinking

What do you mean?

I am drinking less,
but it's easy to slip
back into it

I know I should cut down but I think it would be really hard
